Your Comments or Concerns

I am deeply concerned that the TCEQ is prioritizing the interests of polluters over the health of Texans. Too often, the agency acts as a rubber stamp for industry, giving permits in situations where it clearly should not.

Your Proposed Solution

I believe we need a stronger regulating system. If that requires replacing employees of TCEQ with people who will actually honor the agency's stated commitment to environmental quality, rather than profits for industries it's supposed to be regulating, then I fully support that.
