moms arms because of lies and because a caseworker needs to get in trouble because she didnt follow the rules. And from going to elementary school if you dont follow the rules you get in trouble, but I've always followed the rules. I really feel that caseworkers should not be allowed to tell you what to say just because they dont believe a kid is telling the truth that their parents dont hurt tgem. I know from the past that my words dont mean much because I'm just a kid but all I can do is what I was raised to do and tell you the truth. Thank you for allowing me to speak to on today because I pray that changes can be made to prevent another kid and parents from being torn apart because of lies from hateful people.

Hello, my name is Aurora Dove and I am 10 years old and live with my mom and dad. I would like to say that I have the best mom and dad ever. They both love and support me very much and they would never do anything to hurt me at all. In February 2010 for 3 months and October 2010 for 8 months I was kidnapped from my mom and dad because of lies told to cps by Ariel and Pat Craig. The first time was the only time I met or talked to the investigator and she kept telling me to tell her mom my hurt me and stuff. My mom and dad taught me not to lie because God doesnt like liars. I told her that my mom was a loving mom and she would never hurt me or Ariel. I did tell her that Ariel was mad at my mom because my mom had rules that she didnt like and because my mom wouldnt let Ariel see Pat because Pat told her to lie to go live with her. The second time I was taken from my mom and dad I was begging screaming yelling and crying telling them that my mom never hurt me and that Ariel Pat and the investigator were lying about my mom. But I was only 6 years old its like my voice didnt matter to anyone. After 3 foster homes that Ariel got us kicked out of they separated us and I was put with Grace. This is where they started giving my sleeping pills for crying and beggibg to go home and telling everyone still that my mom never hurt us. These people would lock me in a dark room starved me hit me and they and cps worker told me if I didnt lie about my dad I wouldnt go home ever again. My mom and dad got me back and started taking me to our family therapist and my mom and I were labed with PTSD because of what we went through. I feel as a little kid that has seen heard and has been torn from my
