My name is Sarah Benz. I am a current DPT student at University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, graduating class Dec 2017.

Even as a student, I believe it is important to follow current events in the field of Physical Therapy and I strongly support the Sunset Commission's recommendation that the Texas Board of Physical Therapy Examiners join the national Licensure Compact. Once I graduate and pass the licensure requirements, being able to practice in other states without having to go through each individual state-based licensure requirements would be amazing.

There are so many different physical therapy opportunities that would be opened up to new students just like me as well as practicing professionals in the state of Texas.
