Re: search for "AC contractor" license holder.

License search for Refrigeration (designation "R") is not a choice.
Refrigeration (designation "R") trade is not air conditioning (AC).
Refrigeration (designation "R") may have nothing to do with air conditioning and may be confusing to many people.

One would not look for a license holder designated AC to repair a refrigeration system that keeps liquids cold and food products frozen.

Any Alternative or New Recommendations on This Agency: Rename "AC contractor" should be rewritten such as "AC or/and refrigeration contractor"
