My child was removed in 2006 and placed with people who have taken advantage of her. She has also been abused mentally while she was there. Since the court has no time limit, my daughter has been forced to live in a place she does not want to be. She was removed because of non circumstantial evidence in a sexual abuse case that was never proven to be true. The person who did perform the act, which I found out later and informed the social worker but CPs did nothing.

My life and family are ruined forever as well as my child. I hope that Cps will one day feel the pain that I have for many years.

Any Alternative or New Recommendations on This Agency: close the agency and give back the children that have been removed. They were definitely removed due to lack of evidence. There are very few cases in the state of Texas and around the world that warrant removal of a child from the only home that child has known all of its life. Children grow up with a multitude of problems as a result of Division of Children and Families.
