To whom it may concern:

The Board of Trustees for the Texas Public Schools keep a close watch on the expenditures made by their school district. They are close to and are tax payers in their respective districts.

During the past four or five years the TRS Board and Administration have failed the educators and school system in the Great State of Texas!

The TRS Administration continues to lease and fund the more expensive properties in Austin while our teacher's sometimes work in portable buildings anchored to the ground with cable. Leasing the Indeed Tower (Taj Mahal) before it was constructed took the cake. Proposing costly regional lease sites which need additional staffing is also very costly.

I just ask that they work as hard and diligently as the teachers and administrators across Texas!
