Sunset Advisory Comm.
P.O. Box 13066
Austin, TX. 78711

Dear Trisha Linebarger;

The Sunset Advisory Comm. STAFF REPORT on the TDLR you sent me in June is a big disappointment. I consider it a work of fiction. Page 7 of your report lists as no. 4 of the 5 duties of the TDLR ENFORCEMENT. You should cross no. 4 out (& save over $20 million as per page 8)!

My current complaint against Reeves County chief appraiser John Huddleston (& 2 employees) the TDLR has had since April, 2019, 1 year and 4 months, with the TDLR investigator Mr. DeLeon, doing a good job, spending the first 2 - 3 months gathering more info and sharing much with me, including more unreported criminal history of Mr. Huddleston, and when Mr. DeLeon was done my complaint was ready to act on by TDLR lawyer Mr. Heath, over a year ago, yet all I get are letters from the TDLR every 3 months it is still open, as per the next copy. The Sunset Commission report suggests most complaints are handled in about 6 months, pages 8, 10, etc., which I assume is from the TDLR data given the Sunset Comm. I AIN'T BUYING IT. I believe you have state lawyers protecting other state lawyers. The Sunset Comm. needs to be replaced with a CITIZENS BOARD.

I proved the TDLR addresses complaints with lies, and improper action, including previous complaints years ago against Mr. Huddleston. Yet I don't see any response from the Sunset Comm. addressing this...

IT SEEMS ALL RIGGED. I spent 7 months putting my complaint to the TDLR together, 3 months for my complaint to the Sunset Comm. about the TDLR, with oversight from my lawyer, all for nothing. If YALL (TDLR & Sunset Comm.) aren't going to do anything (proper), tell folks this, don't lead them along. It costs money & is very exhausting putting complaints together.

I phoned my rep. (lang) June 15, 2020, and was told (by Mr. Maxwell) BOTH the TDLR and Sunset Comm. are worthless, the TDLR is just a revenue agency for the state, that the TDLR will never process my complaint.

Sincerely,

Jim Kent
