Dear Mr. Levine:

It is my opinion that the Central Colorado River Authority should continue to exist in Coleman County with local Coleman County directors. This organization is self-sufficient with little or no cost to state taxpayers. As always, local people are more informed about the goings-on in the area than people from Big Spring or Austin when it comes to making decisions pertaining to the watersheds.

It has been an honor to serve on the board of the Central Colorado River Authority. Mr. Lynn Cardinas and his knowledge and abilities are a great asset to the CCRA and the county.

Again, I strongly urge you to keep the CCRA and its local directors in Coleman County. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
