To whom it may concern,

I am writing to express my concern regarding consolidation of our professional board into the TDRL. Although TBPTE is a small regulating board, it provides a great resource to my profession as a physical therapist. I have been practicing 23 years and have a Master of Science degree in Physical Therapy. Throughout these 23 years, my license has been renewed efficiently, questions answered, and evidence based practice has increased.

With consolidation, who has the clinical background to review and regulate our profession?
