Any Alternative or New Recommendations on This Agency: I have switched to seeing a midwife recently within my pregnancy, and my experience has been a very positive one. The midwife has been very compassionate, understanding as well as extremely knowledgeable. She has put me at ease with my pregnancy, and the labor to come within the next few months. I am fully confident in her abilities and would definitely love to use a midwife for my next pregnancy.

I love the fact that midwives can relate to us women so much when it comes to the pregnancy and delivery. Their entire focus is the mother and the baby as well as having the most healthy, natural birth. I love the personal visits, as well as the ability to give birth at home in a cozy, relaxing environment with an option to water birth which i find especially important.
